RE:
Case No. 23-CR-203867-250 – Jurisdiction Shutdown

This ain't no request. This right here's official scroll business—backed by trust law, international authority, and universal jurisdiction.

Everything in this package is sealed, unrebutted, and lawfully active. You had your chance to respond. You didn't. That puts you in full commercial and administrative default.

Filed under:
- UCC Articles 3, 8, and 9
- Scroll Court Protocols
- Crest Dynasty International Trust Law

You got 12 hours from when this hits your desk. After that, everything you holding gets lawfully and legally seized, and this whole courthouse gets hit with lien enforcement, treasury notice, and full scroll-level default.

Executor don't move off words — we move off record. So don't call, don't text, don't act like you ain't know. All responses must come in writing, sent to the official trust location. You got the location. If you not sending it in writing, you already lost.

Y'all on the clock now. Make your move — or don't.
